

University of Vermont Radiology Residency FAQs

2019-2020

Daily Schedule

7:30AM-8:30AM: Morning conference
8:30AM-12PM: Clinical service
12PM-1PM: Noon conference
 1:00PM-2:00PM Wednesdays: resident-led teaching conference / meeting.
 12-2pm Physics Tues
1PM-5PM: Clinical service
5PM-8:30PM: Short call shift (short call resident arrives at noon)
5PM-Midnight: Evening Call Shift
8:30PM-8:30AM: Night float shift
Visiting professors: All residents have morning off to review, about 12 per year.

Block Schedule

First year: 2 Neuro, 2 Body, 2 Chest, 1 Bone films, 1 US, 1 Nucs, 1 GI, 1 IR, 1 Peds, 1 MSK

Second year: 1 Breast, 1 Neuro, 2 Peds, 1 MSK, 1 Chest, 1 Body, 1 US, 1 GI, 1 IR, 1 Nucs, Call

Third year: 1 Breast, 1 Nucs, 1 MSK, 1.5 Chest, 1 Body, 1.5 US, 1 IR, 1 Neuro, 1 GI, 1 AIRP, 1 Elective, Call

Fourth year: 1 Nucs, 1 Breast, Electives, Call

Conferences

RSNA: All expenses paid for one trip, PGY-2 year. Additional conferences: Funding available, ask for details.
New England Roentgen Ray Society: May attend one meeting every year in Boston and get the afternoon off to drive.
McGill: May have 2 days off to attend conferences in Montreal.

Research & Other Requirements

Scholarly project: one during residency, includes posters/papers.
Grand rounds presentation: once during residency
Rad-path conference: once during residency.
Journal club: once during residency.
PQI project: one during residency.

Call

Take independent call starting second year covering all modalities. Attendings on call at home at night as backup with an in-house attending reading plain films until 9PM on weekdays.

2nd Year: 4 weeks of night float, 4 weeks evening, 4 weeks of short call

3rd/4th year: 2 weeks of night float, 2 weeks evening, 2 weeks of short call

First year: Completely free the first 6 months. Buddy call begins in January, covering the short call shift with an upper year resident.

Weekends: Friday night, Saturday day, Sunday day shifts divided up amongst call pool. ~12 shifts 2nd year, 8 3rd year, 4 4th year.

Holiday Call: Covered by 2nd years.

Time Away

Vacation: 20 days/year, can be flexibly scheduled.

Holidays: Covered by 2nd years, all others have them off.

Conferences: Academic time for conferences supported.

Comp days: When covering the weekend plain film day shifts (both weekend days), get 2 weekdays off to be used within 2 weeks.

Interview days: 5 days.

Additional Perks

Educational Fund: $2,500 for books, electronics, courses. Given at start of 1st year.

Board review: $1,000 towards review courses.

ABR dues, in-service exam fees: Paid by department.

Books: Assorted books supplied free of charge.

Lunch: Provided at Wednesday noon conferences, visiting professors, random days.

Meal money: ~$300 on ID card at beginning of each year.

AIRP: $2,500 stipend.

Parking: Free garage parking just outside the department.

Computer: Work laptop provided.

