

CME Information

In support of improving patient care, The Robert Larner College of Medicine at The University of Vermont is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

The University of Vermont designates this live activity for a maximum of 7 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

This program has been reviewed and is acceptable for up to 7 Nursing Contact Hours.

As a Jointly Accredited Organization, the Robert Larner, MD College of Medicine at the University of Vermont is approved to offer social work continuing education by the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) Approved Continuing Education (ACE) program. Organizations, not individual courses, are approved under this program. State and provincial regulatory boards have the final authority to determine whether an individual course may be accepted for continuing education credit. The Robert Larner, MD College of Medicine at the University of Vermont maintains responsibility for this course. Social workers completing this course receive 7.0 general continuing education credits.

Relevant Financial Relationships*

All those with control of content (speakers, planners, moderators, reviewers, staff) who have relevant financial relationships with “ineligible companies” are listed below. (An “ineligible company” is defined as those whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, reselling or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients.)

Financial Interests to Disclose - Relationships have been Mitigated*:

- No Faculty, planners or anyone else involved in control of content had any relevant financial relationships with ineligible companies.

Support received from Ineligible Companies:

- We have not received any support for this activity.

*Having a financial relationship with an ineligible company, or discussing an unlabeled use of an ineligible product, may not prevent a speaker from making a presentation. However, the existence of the relationship must be made known to the planning committee prior to the conference, so that any relevant financial interest may be mitigated prior to the talk.
