The University of Vermont Health Network

Financial Assistance Program

Principle:

The University of Vermont Health Network provides financial assistance to patients who meet the eligibility criteria. The financial assistance program is designed to help patients who are financially burdened by medical expenses. The program ensures that patients receive the care they need without the fear of accruing additional debt.

Eligibility:

Patients who meet the following criteria are eligible for financial assistance:

- Financial need:
  - Income below 200% of the federal poverty level
  - Significant out-of-pocket expenses

- Medical necessity:
  - Treatment for a medical condition
  - Treatment plan recommended by a healthcare provider

Application:

Patients interested in applying for financial assistance should contact the Patient Financial Services Department at their local hospital or clinic.

University of Vermont Health Network (UVMHN) is committed to ensuring fair and transparent processes in the appeal and due process systems. We are dedicated to upholding the highest standards of integrity and accountability in all our operations.

We are committed to providing clear and comprehensive information on the appeal process and the actions taken by our organization. This includes details on how we handle grievances, the criteria for making decisions, and the timelines for each stage of the process. We also provide access to the relevant policies and procedures, as well as opportunities for feedback and input from our stakeholders.

In cases where there are concerns or complaints about the actions of our staff or processes, we have established a formal appeal process that allows individuals to seek redress and have their concerns addressed. Our appeal process is designed to be accessible, fair, and impartial, with clear guidelines for filing appeals and making decisions.

We are committed to treating every individual with respect and dignity, and to providing a safe and supportive environment for our staff and patients. We believe that transparency and accountability are essential to our mission and vision, and we strive to uphold the highest standards of integrity and professionalism in all our interactions.

We encourage everyone to join us in this commitment to fairness, transparency, and accountability, and to contribute to a culture of trust and confidence. We are committed to making progress on this journey, and we welcome feedback and ideas for how we can continue to improve.

Thank you for your support and partnership in achieving our共同 goals.
